Preventing discrimination and/or sexist abuse
An independent counselling centre, Allodiscrim, is now available.

You can contact them:
• whether you are contract or tenured staff
• whatever your geographic assignment may be.

Professionals who are ready to help

The Allodiscrim Counselling Centre is an independent unit made up of specialised legal experts, who, after assessing your situation, can answer your questions, provide useful information, and/or advise you on the steps to be taken.

Operating principles and assurances:

For each and every discussion, the Allodiscrim Counselling Centre ensures you:
• Expertise
• Independence
• Neutrality
• Confidentiality

Anonymous contacts cannot be accepted. But INRAE will only be informed of your situation with your express permission.

INRAE is committed to responding to every situation that comes to our attention.

Do you feel you have been the victim of or witness to discrimination or sexual or sexist abuse at your workplace?
How do the discussions work?

The counselling centre will assist you every step of the way:

1. A legal counsel will analyse your situation to be able to qualify, where relevant, what you have experienced in terms of discrimination or sexual and/or sexist abuse.

2. In all cases, they will provide you with advice and help you identify a solution.

3. If the facts require a more in-depth approach, the information will be sent to the DRHDD (Human Resources and Sustainable Development Directorate) and the Head of Equality and Non-Discrimination with your written approval.

4. Where necessary, the legal counsel may request additional explanations from the president of your centre, the local HR officers or the DRHDD.

You can terminate the discussion whenever you wish.
