

18th- Symposium Day 1 (9:00 start)

|                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                |                  |
|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
|                                           | Welcome coffee                                                                                                                                                          | 8h30      |
| Arno Germond (INRAE)                      | Introductory talk                                                                                                                                                              | 9h00             |
| Masami TAKEUCHI (FAO)                     | The future of marine foods: Navigating food safety challenges and opportunities in the blue economy                                                                            | 9h15             |
|                                           | Coffee &amp; Sponsors Exhibition                                                                                                                                        | 10h00     |
| Erwan ENGEL (INRAE)                       | Recent advances to strengthen chemical food safety                                                                                                                             | 10h45            |
| Amund Maage (UIB)                         | Fisheries and marine processing challenges and opportunities                                                                                                                   | 11h30            |
|                                           | lunch at Restaurant "Le Gourmet"                                                                                                                                        | 12h15     |
| BRIT'INOV (France)                        | Consortium d'industriels Français de Bretagne.                                                                                                                                 | 13h45            |
| ADIV / Procidys                           | Prestations de R&D, Audit, Conseil, Expertise et Formation pour les outils d'abattage, de découpe et de transformation des produits viandes, et marins par sa filiale Procidys | 14h00            |
| UMIOS                                     | one of the largest fishery, aquaculture, and food processing companies in the world                                                                                            | 14h20            |
| Véronique Santé & Parisa Hasidi (INRAE)   | How to adapt food product to specific population ? Social aspects on food.                                                                                                     | 14h45            |
|                                           | Coffee &amp; Sponsors Exhibition                                                                                                                                        | 15h30-16h |
| Lorie Hamelin (INRAE)                     | Life Cycle Analysis (LCA ) and challenges                                                                                                                                      | 16h              |
| Rohit Srivastava (INRAE / Sup Agro Dijon) | Sensory appreciation (on texture, aroma etc) and consumer behavior                                                                                                             | 16h45            |
| Arno Germond (INRAE)                      | Conclusion of day 1                                                                                                                                                            | 17h30            |
|                                           | Social drink (grand mess bar)                                                                                                                                           | 17h45     |

19th- Symposium Day 2 (9:00 start)

|                              |                                                         |              |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
|                              | Welcome coffee                                   | 8h30  |
| Daniel Marin (CSIC-ICTAN)    | Valorization of marine residues & underutilized species | 9h00         |
| Gonzalo Delgado (CSIC-ICTAN) | Forgotten Foods                                         | 9h40         |
|                              | Coffee &amp; Sponsors Exhibition                 | 10h20 |
| Sylvie Clerjon (INRAE)       | MRI modality for food product                           | 10h45        |
| Maia Meurillon (INRAE)       | Chemical Safety in products                             | 11h15        |
| Livia Falla (CSIC-ICTAN)     | VR-based technology for consumer & industrial setting   | 11h45        |

|                                          |                                                |                  |
|------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Lunch at Restaurant "Le Bouillon" |                                                | 12h15     |
| Marie France Pillet (ONIRIS)             | Microbial risks assessments in the Food sector | 13h45            |
| Yuri KOMINAMI (Tokyo University)         | Food products and processing in Japan          | 14h15            |
| Gonzalo Delgado (CSIC-ICTAN)             | FORGOTTEN FOOD - QUIZZ (30 min)                | 15h00            |
| Coffee &amp; Sponsors Exhibition  |                                                | 15h30-16h |
| Laura Alvarez (TEAGASC)                  | (to be confirmed) AI in the Food industry 4.0  | 16h00            |
| Round table / workshop with industrials  | 45 min round table                      | 16h45            |
| Arno Germond                             | Conclusion of day 2                            | 17h30            |
| Social drink (grand mess bar)     |                                                | 17h45     |